

I do not think that airing a anti-Kerry film is going to help President Bush. It could possibly do the reverse. People are tired of the name calling and the negative commericals on the TV now. Please just deal with the issues that people want to hear about and stop the so called name calling.